

We are grateful for the support of the USS Nevada sailors involved with the Personal Excellence through Cooperative Education (PECE) program. The PECE program is a partnership between U.S. Navy commands and local schools.

USS Nevada crew members have helped our students in many ways. Sailors have helped us put on our annual carnival, accompanied students to classes and served as tutors and lunch buddies.

